No. 3-28—Monopoly Game—Not new but a tried and tested game, should be included in every game assortment for home entertainment. It has a business background—makes being in business fun (which is something these days), using the buying and selling of real estate as the problem, with the one acquiring the most becoming the Monopolist and the winner. Played by 3 to 8 players, from 10 years of age up, on a folding board 19" square with an array of tokens, hotels, dice, cards and fortunes in paper money. Shipping weight 4 lbs. . . . . $2.20

Puzzle Chest

No. 3-25—Puzzle Chest—A 16 x 12" hinged covered, partitioned box holding a unique collection of famous puzzles, such as Chinese Puzzle Purse, Nutty Bolt Trick, Tri-N-Do-It, Pick-a-Pef, Takitapart, Magic Egg, and 7 others equally as capable of defying the skill of older boys and girls, and adults too, making them an excellent pastime. No two puzzles are alike for they vary in construction, shape and solution. Easy when one knows, but if found too difficult one can refer to the written solutions. Shipping weight 5 lbs. . . . . $5.00

No. 4-37—Dual Control Boxing—The boxer leads with his left and smashes a right to the body. His opponent attempts to parry the blow by guessing what is coming. If he guesses correctly his reward is great, if not, he may be knocked out or lose the fight on points. But win or lose, it's the only slugging match we know of where 2 players can fight it out sitting around a table. The fighters are lithographed on a 15 x 17 inches red and white board. Shipping weight 4 lbs. . . . . $2.00

No. 3-26—Stars on Stripes Football Game—Eighteen of the leading football coaches have endorsed this game, and no wonder, since there are, for instance, 56 variations of each of the running plays, long pass, short pass, punts, etc. Element of luck enters into the results since 3 dice are used, but the player who chooses his plays most carefully usually wins. Played on a heavy cardboard field 18" long. Packed in 8 x 18" box. Shipping weight 3 lbs. $2.00

Dual Control Boxing

No. 9-77—Du-Ration—A new and appropriate table game for 2 to 6 players with which you can have fun making the most of the ration coupons. The 20" square folding board represents a shopping tour to 4 grocery and meat stores where you purchase food cards with your allotted ration coupons instead of actual commodities. Progress throughout the tour is regulated not only by the throw of dice, but by bonuses and penalties as well and as a further reality the "Black Market" rears its ugly head to complicate matters for all the players. Shipping weight 5 lbs. $2.00

No. 4-71—Knight's Kontest—A shooting game consisting of a flat colorful castle in front of which appear King, Queen and 2 soldiers, also a cross-bow rifle and 4 harmless bullets. Whenever one of the 4 characters is hit, he flips backward exposing the score made. Comes in a box measuring 19 x 13". Shipping weight 4 lbs. . . . . $2.25

No. 10-68—Eldorado—Every age will enjoy the long exciting search for hidden treasure that this board game affords. The exceptionally large and beautifully designed board shows a map of the world marked with spots of the known and authentic lost treasures. Players move by various means along special tracks to these spots where they "dig" for this hidden wealth. Of course the player acquiring most "booty" at the end is the winner. All equipment is included plus a special 46-page booklet brilliantly describing these world-wide treasures. Shipping weight 8 lbs. $5.00
